

TAG DAY IN HAMMOND, GET READY FOR IT

When greeting the tag day girl early tomorrow morning be sure to ask her for a red badge. Your second choice should be a blue one, your third a yellow one and last of all, if none of the others can be procured, ask for a plain white one. But get a badge. The red costs a dollar, the blue a half dollar, the yellow a quarter, while the white represents any amount under 25 cents.

Unless one stays closely in the house there will be no escape from the fair taggers tomorrow. They will have possession of every prominent street corner in the city, but they will it to your judgment as to the amount to be donated. A nickel will be received as gracefully as a dollar.

Automobile Is Needed.

The charity committee of the Hammond Woman's club and the Jewish Ladies' Aid society, under whose authority tag day will be conducted, will have their headquarters at the office of the Lake County Savings and Trust Company tomorrow. Those of the workers who failed to get their supplies this afternoon may get them at the headquarters tomorrow. Mrs. L. I. Modjeska of the Jewish Ladies' Aid society or Mrs. J. M. Turner, chairman of the charity committee of the Hammond Woman's club, will be at the window. They will also take turns about to visit the different posts of the taggers, and still in hope that some kind-hearted individual will donate the use of his automobile for a few hours for this purpose tomorrow.

The funds that are gathered tomorrow will be divided between the organizations, and will be distributed this winter to the poor of Hammond. Every case will be thoroughly investigated before any money is expended and the line of charity will not be drawn on race, religion or creed.

DEMOCRATS GET BUSY IN RACE FOR SPEAKERSHIP.

sessions, and has been a member of important committees. He was talked of for speaker two years ago, but did not make the race.

Spencer is a lawyer in this city and has been active in the Democratic machine here for years. He is one of the right hand men of Thomas Taggart. He has paid special attention to the election laws, and was election commissioner for Marion county for a long time.

It is a question whether some of these men would rather be speaker on chairman of the ways and means committee of the House. The chairman of the ways and means committee is a power in the Legislature, for it is with that committee that all appropriation bills must originate.

The ways and means committee fixes all salaries in the state institutions and state offices. It fixes the appropriation bill which determines just how much money shall be allowed for the maintenance of each state institution and office. It has the power to cut off any officer or abolish any office or position which is not especially authorized and created by the state constitution. The chairman of the ways and means committee is, next to the speaker, the most sought after man in the House, and many men would rather be chairman of that committee than speaker.

There is also another committee which is regarded as a high honor, and that is the visiting committee which is appointed by the Governor to visit all of the state offices and institutions and investigate their needs and requirements and make a report to the House and Senate making recommendations as to the amount of money which ought to be appropriated for it for the next two years. While the recommendations of this committee are not binding on anyone they afford a basis on which the ways and means and finance committees work and for the guidance of the members of the Legislature in voting on the appropriation bills. This committee is composed of two Representatives and one Senator. This time there will be on the committee one Democratic Representative, one Republican Representative and one Democratic Senator.

There is a story afloat to the effect that Cravens may be appointed on this visiting committee. He had a long conference with Governor Marshall, yesterday afternoon, and it is known that the Governor would like to have him on that committee. This would take him out of the race for Speaker. Either Strickland or Faulkner would then be in line for speaker, and it is likely that an arrangement would be made by which one would be made the speaker and the other would get the chairmanship of the ways and means committee.

It is certain that Cravens, Strickland and Faulkner will be the big three in the House next winter, and that they will practically dictate the policy of the House. Representative Seldensticker, of this city, is another one that will be a leader, but he will probably be content with an important chairmanship.

There is one thing sure, however, and that is that Governor Marshall is going to dominate the Legislature and that that body will "jump through" whenever he says the word. Already a number of Democratic state officials elect have called on the Governor and told him that they wanted to get his ideas as to the conduct of their offices. Several newly elected members of the legislature also have called on him. Several of the new members already have selected their seats in the house or senate for the next session.

Your Friends Prefer Jewelry to Any Other Gift In The World.

For thousands of years—as far back as historical records go—the universal token of love and friendship has been precious stones and jewels. To every race in every age and generation, gems and jewels have held a charm more alluring than money, land, merchandise or any other form of wealth.

And with each generation, the sentiment attached to the giving and owning of jewels grows.

Each achievement in life is associated with gifts of beautiful jewels—a diminutive ring for the baby; bracelets and neck chains for birthday remembrances; at graduation, perhaps a fine watch; a diamond ring announces the marriage engagement; and at the wedding, the crowning event of all, a multitude of precious gems, stones and jewels.

Search the gamut of human wants and you will find no gift so acceptable as jewelry. Good jewelry is a heritage that is handed down from generation to generation and an enduring remembrance of the giver.

When you wish to select jewelry for your friends or relatives, come to this store. You can not find more dependable jewelry anywhere in this city. Nor are the prices we ask in any case unreasonable. In many instances a comparison will demonstrate that to trade here means a considerable cash saving.

If you are unfamiliar with jewelry, we will be glad to help you make tasteful selections. On the other hand, if you are accustomed to buying rings, lockets, bracelets, watches, etc., so much the better. You will appreciate the more keenly the high quality of our goods and our up-to-date selections.

Needless to say, every article of merchandise we sell is warranted to be exactly as represented. There's no chance for deception at this store.

Our line is particularly interesting in rings, brooches, bracelets, necklaces, lockets, pins, watches and late novelties.

We are local agents for the famous South Bend Watch, which you see advertised in the leading magazines.

Come and visit our store, whether or not you are ready to purchase jewelry. Bring your friends along. We take pleasure in showing the many beautiful gems and jewels that we have.
